Who Will You Listen To?

Adapted from: Who Will You Listen To?
From Kings and Chronicles – Rob Allison

1. D
While we are young ones there is
A
A lesson that's crucial to learn.
D
In life we all make decisions.
G D A
D
To whose counsel are you going to turn?
G
Who will you listen to?
D
Who will you listen to?
E A-A7
This one question is so vital for you!
D
From older ones don't turn away!
G
Listen to what they say!
D A D
Their wisdom will be a help to you!
2. When we are young there is pressure
To listen to what our friends say.
Yet deep within in our conscience
Is a feeling that says, "That's the wrong way!"

Who will you listen to?
Who will you listen to?
This one question is so vital for you!
From conscience don't turn away
Listen to what it says!
That feeling will be a help to you!
3. As we get older, we find out
Our parents are most often right.
Now is the time to be faithful
To be those who seek out their insight.

Who will you listen to?
Who will you listen to?
This one question is so vital for you!
From parents, don't turn away!
Listen to what they say!
They've been there,
And they will stand with you!
4. As we grow up God is with us;
The Bible, His Word, shows the way.
When you must make tough
decisions,
Do be faithful to seek out what it says.

Who will you listen to?
Who will you listen to?
Elders, conscience, parents, Bible too!
From these never turn away.
Listen to what they say.
God gave them to you
For your own good!

(Echo: Remember, in everything you do)

D
The choice is up to you.

Just listen to your conscience, He will tell you what to do.
He's the little voice that God has put inside of you
And He's the one that tells you when you're doing something wrong
So you better pay attention when He sings this little song.
